

STRAIGHT ALLY

A straight ally is someone who is heterosexual and cisgender who recognizes the many discriminations and barriers fought by the LGBTQ+ community. The straight uses their privilege to help bring down those barriers and work with social movements to fight discrimination against the community. They confront homophobia, transphobia and biphobia.

Post this flag where you want members of the LGBTQ+ community to know they have a STRAIGHT ALLY.